RE: Ante Litem Notice
Pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 36-33-5

Dear Madam Mayor and City Council,

I represent Walter Calloway for purposes of any and all claims arising from his wrongful and unlawful arrest on May 13, 2008. Pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 36-33-5, this letter constitutes formal notice of a tort claim against a municipality, which must be presented in writing.

On May 13, 2008, Mr. Calloway was falsely arrested and imprisoned by an officer of the Atlanta Police Department. The arrest and imprisonment of him by the officer was improper, unnecessary and unjustified under Georgia law. My client also contends that the arrest constituted the unreasonable use of search and seizure in violation of the Fourth Amendment of the United States Constitution. The City of Atlanta is liable for the conduct of these officers to the extent that it has waived sovereign immunity by the purchase of insurance or participation in a self insurance plan, and the City is also liable under federal civil rights law to the extent that officer's improper use of false arrest and imprisonment were caused by any custom, policy, or practice of Atlanta and its police department.

To the extent that the law requires than an ante litem notice specify an amount of damages, we hereby demand the aggregate sum of $150,000.00, payable within thirty (30) days upon receipt of this notice, as payment in full of any and all claims. If we are forced to file suit we will certainly be seeking more than $150,000.00.

If you contend that this notice fails to satisfy the requirements of O.C.G.A. Section 36-33-5 in any way, please give us immediate notice of any such claimed deficiency; otherwise, we will assume that you did not dispute the validity of this notice and that any lack of response on your part constitutes a denial of the claim rather than an objection in the manner in which it has been presented. Please govern yourself accordingly.

This wrongful/unlawful arrest stems from a personal matter between the officer and my client. The officer and my client were in disagreement regarding a $20.00 alleged balance that the officer claimed was owed by my client for a job the officer was hired to do. The officer, after a verbal altercation with my client arrested him at his job, Frederick Douglas High School in front of his fellow instructors, parents and students. As a result of this wrongful and unlawful arrest my client had to bond out of jail, publically humiliated in front of his colleagues, parents and students and had to endure legal expenses in order to fight the frivolous charge against him resulting from this wrongful and unlawful arrest.

Respectfully,

Marvin S. Arrington, Jr., Esq.
